FACE IT

When something keeps winning award after award, one really ought to sit up and take notice. This Radiance Face Oil, £30, from Balance Me is proving to be an unstoppable force, so get aboard the bandwagon and find out for yourself what all the fuss is about. balanceme.co.uk

SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

When you've had a row with your diamonds and you want to wear something else, go for these Carat London emerald-cut studs, £146. They look like the real deal, but... shhh... they're not. No one need ever know. caratlondon.com

SO GOOD IT HURTS

You know that thing when you see something and you jerk your neck in a double take because it's so good-looking – like Bradley Cooper randomly walking down your road or, even better, this Coach bag? Well, that sensation is called whiplash – and so is this leather bag, £515. Because that's the kind of storm it's going to create when it hits the streets. coach.com

Somewhere over the rainbow, they have trainers that are still really cool but also a bit smart – maybe made out of suede, because that would be nice. WAIT! What's that, Colology – these trainers, £250, actually exist? Because YOU make them? And in lots of different colours? Dreams really do come true. colology.com

DOUBLE UP

If there were such a thing as a dream team for eyes, this Aurelia twosome would be it. The roller contains a delicate serum to get down into the skin, while the nourishing cream kicks any wrinkles into touch. It's known as probiotic technology – and it's marvellous. Eye Revitalising Duo, £90. aureliaskincare.com

STEP RIGHT BACK...

Sit up and pay attention, those of you who love one-off vintage pieces of jewellery. This coral ring, £5,000, from the William & Son vintage collection is made with white diamonds set in yellow gold. Buy it, put it on, flash it about a bit and know that you will never meet its twin. You have to admit, that is pretty tempting, isn't it? williamandson.com

WRAPPER'S DELIGHT

If there's one way Jaeger really knows how to smash the competition, it's with coats. Like this caramel double-faced wool wrap baby, £399, for instance. Their recent revamp is looking pretty good from here. jaeger.co.uk
