SIXTIES REBOOT

1

The 1960s may be one of the biggest revivals of the season, but forget beehives and white tights... we have four modern ways to channel your inner Swinging London girl

Rediscover the A-line

A nipped-in waist and flared hem define this decade, while bare legs and contemporary footwear will keep the look in the here and now.
Coat, £892, Carven (avenue32.com); shirt, £55, and skirt, £59, both COS (cosstores.com); boots, £278, AllSaints (allsaints.com); bag, £145, Bimba Y Lola (bimbaylola.com)

2

Make it mini

Thigh-grazing hemlines in unexpected fabrics give this retro look a whole new kick. Make sequins day-appropriate by layering them with heavy knits.

Coat, £550, Lulu & Co (luluandco.co.uk); printed jumper, £25.99, Bershka (bershka.com); roll neck, £99, Les 100 Cielles (les100c.com); sequin skirt, £85, Topshop (topshop.com); boots, £69.99, Mango (mango.com); bag, £269, Orla Kiely (orkiely.com)

Faux-fur coat, £275, Whistles (whistles.com); wool dress, £99, Uterqüe (uterque.com); shirt, £155, Day Birger (day.dk); boots, £60, Next (next.co.uk); bag, £319, Orla Kiely (orkiely.com); hat, £28, River Island (riverisland.com)

3

Update with accessories

Make a floppy hat, top-handle bag and patent boots the key extras to update any short dress.

4

It's all in the detail

The '60s can be sexy. This leather shift dress and bejewelled evening coat are super-chic – and require minimal effort.

Coat, £1,610, and bag, £365, both Kate Spade (020 7836 3988); dress, £1,049, Raoul (raoul.com); shoes, £38, Next (next.co.uk); earrings, £7.50, Freedom For Topshop (topshop.com)
