Annabel is founder of wedding wonder-blog lovelymydress.net – an online world packed full of timelessly glamorous brides all with a sense of sophistication and style!

Where is your favourite place in the world? New York! I have such a love affair with this fabulous, cosmopolitan city. The Big Apple offers so many opportunities for romance – a stroll in Central Park, people watching as you enjoy a coffee at a sidewalk cafe, sitting on the Brooklyn Bridge and watching night time arrive – the city comes alive when you see all its twinkling lights.

Where have you always wanted to go? Anywhere in the Pacific Ocean. I've always wanted to visit Fiji and Tahiti and swim in those beautiful blue lagoons. One day!

Which is your favourite hotel? Without a doubt, New York Soho House. I'm a huge Soho House fan – I adore their approach to interior design and their discreet and utterly professional level of customer service. My husband and I stayed at Soho House New York during bridal market (Bridal Fashion Week) last October and it was beyond fabulous. We had the biggest bed known to man with the softest pillows and sheets. Their rooftop restaurant offers amazing views – and the food is really healthy and delicious. We are planning on returning as soon as we can.

What is your favourite holiday read? I have to confess, being a blogging and social media geek, my holiday reading usually consists of something business or blogging related! Being a mum of two and having my own business to run can be a challenge at the best of times, so currently I'm reading a lot on mindfulness. I'd be packing my copy of The Buddha Walks Into The Office by Lodro Rinzler. Seth Godin, the God of marketing, says it's an 'urgent and life-changing read' – that will do for me!

What will we find in your suitcase? I'm currently obsessed with the bio-organic Aurelia skincare range – it's a wonder cream, I swear. So I'd have to pop in a pot of their Cell Revitalise Night Moisturiser.

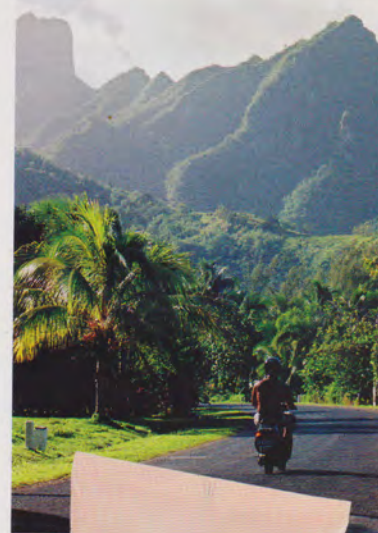

My fashion item would absolutely have to be the Supper Club Kimono in rose by Shell Belle Couture. I am completely head over heels for everything in the Shell Belle collection and I simply adore their 'beach to boudoir' philosophy.
