NATURAL BEAUTY

Aurelia's range of probiotic skincare is now available at Space NK in Edinburgh and nationwide. The brand is completely natural and has already received much praise from the beauty industry despite being founded only a year ago by dermatology expert Claire Vero. I was lucky enough to try out the Miracle Cleanser and Cell Revitalise Night Moisturiser, writes

Morag Bootland. The cleanser is fragranced with chamomile, eucalyptus, rosemary and bergamot and smells fab. It removes all traces of make-up gently with the help of the antibacterial bamboo muslin cloth and the lovely big pot is going to last me for many an evening. The overnight moisturiser is rich and luxurious and the fragrance of neroli, lavender, rose and mandarin means that smoothing it on before bedtime makes you feel like you are snoozing off in a gloriously scented garden. Despite my sensitive skin, Aurelia's natural products are keeping my face feeling great. www.aureliaskincare.com
