

A Birthday Wishlist

Gemma Oliver | Sunday, August 04, 2013 | The Wishlist

With my birthday fast approaching, I'm finding it hard to believe that come Friday I'll be 23 years old. For me, it's the age where I've always said to myself that I'll know where I want to go in life and what I want to do, I'll be with the guy I want to marry and I'll be all grown up. Well, I've got the man, I'm about to start my final year of university and I've just landed myself a part time job too so I guess I'm well on the way to that goal. Anyway, there's 6 items that are top of my birthday wish list that I'm crossing my fingers and toes in the hopes of receiving them so I thought I'd share them with you...

With a severe lack of face masks in my skincare stash and my sensitive skin prone to looking dry and dull I've got my eyes on the Ren F10 Smooth and Renew Mask which aims to exfoliate and detoxify the skin making it sound like a skin boosting health kick for the face. I've never been 100% happy with any day moisturisers I've tried, I think moisturiser is definitely a picky product area for me and I'm still searching for 'the one'. That said, from all of the reviews and praise I've heard about the Aurelia Cell Revitalise Day Moisturiser and the fact that I already absolutely adore their Miracle Cleanser and Revitalise & Glow Serum I've got high hopes for their moisturiser and would love to get my paws on it and give it a go. I'm not sure if you've noticed but whenever I do a makeup post there's always one brand that's included - RMS Beauty. With 7 of their products already in my possession I think it's safe to say that I'm a little bit obsessed and when they released the new RMS Beauty Lip2Cheek in Demure the soft pink shade immediately found it's way to the top of my wishlist mountain. La Bella Figura is a brand that I've literally been itching to try ever since I discovered them via twitter months ago and the La Bella Figura Organic Barbary Fig Seed Oil has left me feeling more than a little bit curious. I love the simplicity of a single ingredient that claims to be a hydrating facial oil beneficial for hormonal skin by calming inflammation and acting as an anti-aging active. For nails Kure Bazaar's Nail Varnish in Rose Milk and Cashmere, a pretty subtle pink milkshake and a muted dusky grey, have caught my eye. Both are gorgeous sophisticated shades perfect for teaming with my teaching assistant work outfits or even just on a daily basis to keep me looking as polished as can be.

So that's it, an August baby's birthday beauty wishlist. Have you tried any of the products I'm wishing for?
